Identifying America

At home or abroad, most people can name a symbol that represents the United States to them.

Lady Liberty. The first thing seen by many as they reach America, the Statue of Liberty was a gift from France. The statue dedication took place in 1886. It was originally intended to be presented in 1876 to commemorate a century of American independence.

Old Glory. Possibly the most recognized flag in the world, creation of the first version has long been attributed to Betsy Ross. Between 1777 and 1960, various acts and executive orders changed the shape, design and arrangement of the original flag.

Beautiful bird. Thanks in part to its great strength and stately looks, Congress chose the bald eagle as the national symbol in 1782.

Lisa's Love of Animals

I was looking at this picture I took of Lisa at the Thanksgiving Point Farm Country and I started to think "Hmmm, every picture I have taken with Lisa has an animal in it." Lisa loves animals; all kinds, it doesn't matter if it is soft and cuddly or creepy and crawly. We are glad to provide an outing that makes Lisa happy. All it took was a soft nose of a horse - sometimes it is just the simple things in life that make you smile! So remember to look at the calendar every month and mark the things on it you want to do. Please come and join us in the activity room. You might even find your smile.
