FACTS ABOUT
INDEPENDENCE DAY

1. Contrary to popular belief, only two Founding Fathers signed the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776. The majority of signers penned their signatures on August 2, 1776.
2. The holiday does not celebrate the signing of the Declaration; it celebrates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence by the Second Continental Congress.
3. In a now-famous letter to his wife, Abigail, dated July 3, 1776, John Adams made a prediction that the "Second Day of July" would be celebrated as American Independence Day, since the Congress had actually voted to sever ties with Great Britain the day before.
4. Independence Day became a federal holiday in 1870.
5. Other countries, including Denmark, England, Norway, Portugal and Sweden also celebrate the Fourth of July as a way to bring in American tourists.
6. Our country now boasts 318.9 million citizens, but on the first Fourth of July there were only 2.5 million.
7. The original draft of the Declaration of Independence was lost.
8. The back of the Declaration of Independence says, "Original Declaration of Independence dated 4th July 1776."
9. The Pennsylvania Evening Post was the first newspaper to print the Declaration on July 6, 1776.

Patriotism

July 2018

BOLD STRIPES, BRIGHT STARS, BRAVE HEARTS.

Frank - World War II Veteran

Newel - World War II Veteran

Norma - Wife of a Veteran

The American men and women whose young lives had been defined first by the deprivations of the Great Depression and then by sacrifices of war came home to start families, begin careers, build communities, serve their nation in uniform and in political office. Who would have blamed them if they had returned and said simply, "I've done my share? Let someone else take care of the world"? They did not, of course. Instead, they gave us the lives we have TODAY!!!

This is taken from the book "The Greatest Generation" written by Tom Brokaw. The residents of Carrington Court are part of the greatest generation; very patriotic and proud to call the United States of America their home. Let us all celebrate on July 4 this great nation of ours!

Wishing for Fishing

If we sit in our room, our lives filled with gloom
 So, we talk to Diane, because we've learned that she can
 Happiness bring, to make our heart sing.
 We get on Mike's bus, we have no need to fuss
 There's no need to worry - no need to hurry
 While we are riding, those fish will be hiding
 Mike will take us to bake, in the sun for our sake!
 Ahh!! The gentle breeze, our dancing hair it will tease
 The worm starts to swirl, the man says wait, use marshmallow for bait
 We feel it a loss, when we reel in the toss
 And it's five pounds of moss!
 If we have no luck, we can go feed the ducks
 We're all very fond, of fishing at Grandpa's Pond.
