HONOR THY MOTHER

Carrington Court will be having a Mother's Day Dinner Thursday, May 7, beginning at 5 p.m. This will be a special dinner for all of our residents to invite two guests to join them. We are honored to have so many wonderful mothers residing at our community. This dinner is for all residents, mothers and fathers. We look forward to making this a memorable day for all of you.

Elle and Her Three Daughters

The mothers who reside at Carrington Court are as unique as the snowflakes that fall from the sky. They each have a story to tell. Their stories are filled with happiness and heartache. Employees of Carrington Court want to say "Happy Mother's Day" to each of you. Please know we are here to serve you; after all, you have served so many others your entire life.

Quilting at Carrington Court

So many wonderful activities happen at Carrington Court. To the left, you will see Norma and Sheran tying a quilt that we will be donating to the Humanitarian Center. Please look at our Carrington Court blog (once on the website, scroll across the banner and hover over the "News" headline – you will see the Blog tab come up) on our website for more pictures of all of our quilters. Everyone worked really hard, even our men! We watched a video of a woman receiving her quilt and the genuine joy and happiness that she felt upon receiving this beautiful gift inspired our residents, even though sometimes it is not as easy to work our fingers as we age. We all found satisfaction in trying. Please remember, loved ones, feel free to join in with us anytime you stop by. We could always use a few extra hands tying our quilt – you might even find yourself enjoying the company!
