Millard Rice

Millard is our spotlight for December. He was born July 29, 1928, in Claresholm, Alberta, Canada. Millard married Marilyn Elva Moore in the Salt Lake Temple. They met at BYU college. Together, they had seven children and 18 grandchildren. Millard was an air traffic controller, building engineer, and loves airplanes. He loves Thanksgiving because of the food. He also loves summer camping and hot dog roasts. He loves to read and learn about history and different places. He also likes peanuts and roast beef. His favorite color is brown. He loves classical piano, played the drums and is a great handyman. Millard admires his wife because she took such good care of him. One of the greatest things about Millard is all of his children have served missions for their church. One thing Millard really likes is a glass of cold milk. Thank you, Millard, for who you are!
