"Tamera Clapp"

Tamera was born Feb. 16, 1943, in Idaho Falls. She married Frank Clapp. Together, they adopted two girls. They have eight grandchildren. She worked as a beautician, office manager, and liked making people pretty. Her favorite holiday is Christmas. She has enjoyed everything about her family traditions. Her favorite colors are yellow and purple. She has traveled the Intermountain Region. Her greatest accomplishment is her children and grandchildren. A lesson she has lived by is to have JOY in your heart, and that is how she lived. We have enjoyed Tamera's sweet personality so much. Thanks so much, Tamera, for your joy and love you bring to us all.

February 2013

Gussie and Cicely Peterson

Cicely is our employee spotlight for February. She was born in Provo, Utah. She married David and together they have five children. She loves Halloween because it's her birth month. She loves to scrapbook and go shopping. Her favorite food is tacos. She likes the color green. She has traveled to South Florida and Georgia. An accomplishment she is most proud of is her kids and her scrapbooks. The person she admires is her grandpa; he was very kind and caring. One of the greatest things that has happened to Cicely is, she became a mom and married her husband, David. A lesson she has learned is to be kind to everyone. We appreciate Cicely for all she does here for our residents. You are a very sweet person!
