Meet our resident Mr. James Carl Cope; he was born on Oct. 14, 1921, in Richfield, UT. He is the 5th of 8 children. He was an orphan at age 6, then raised by his stepmother and extended family in CA & UT. He worked at the Veteran's Administration in NY & Washington, D.C. He volunteered for military service in 1943 and became the navigator on B24 bombers in the South Pacific. Discharged in 1946. He served an LDS church mission in 1946-1947 in the northwestern states. He married his Carma in 1948. They attended Dixie College and graduated from BYU in 1951. He worked as a school teacher in Garrison, UT, and Corcoran & Hayfork, CA. He transitioned to teaching Special Education. Retired in 1987. They raised 6 children in a small rambler home constructed by himself. He added a workshop and garage as the family grew. Their 1/2-acre plot in Hayfork, CA, is known as Beulah Street and is still owned by James. He enjoyed canoeing so much that he refurbished several old Boy Scout canoes and gave them to his adult children. He also had the latest in several kinds of woodworking saws. He was an excellent chess player. He likes to view "mountain scenery" from a car. He owned a pick-up truck continuously from 1953 to when he gave his last one to his daughter in 2008. We appreciate you, James!

They have 6 children, 16 grandchildren & 4 great-grandchildren. She supported her husband behind the scenes for a 20-year career in the Army. She spent 3 years in Panama with her husband and children. They traveled that country while there. Once Marie flew from Virginia to California alone with 6 little children to be with her husband. Marie was awarded the Den Mother of the Year in the scouting program. She was a wonderful seamstress making clothes & upholstered furniture. She was known as the train grandma to her grandchildren, because they had to cross the tracks to see her and she had cool trains to play with. She loved to bake for her family. Marie was a collector of dolls and plates, salt and pepper shakers, beanies and large teddy bears. She loves music, mostly country. Her favorite place to eat is Red Lobster.
