"Lucille Berhmann"

Lucille was born June 20, 1939, in Salt Lake City, Utah. She married Earl later in life in Salt Lake. She has three children with her first husband, and nine grandchildren. She worked as a Secretary. She likes dogs, music, pizza and the color blue. She loves Christmas time. One of her accomplishments is playing the piano. Lucille likes to walk around, play games, dance and smile. We appreciate Lucille for her loving personality that she shares with others.

October 2012

Jimmy & Lauren

Lauren LaPlante is our "employee spotlight" for October. She grew up in Southern California. She married Daniel in Laguna Beach in California, and they have one daughter, named Madison. They have a cat, named "Buddy." Her favorite holiday is Christmas. She likes crafting, knitting and taking pictures. Her favorite food is tacos. She likes the colors red and purple. She also likes to read mystery crimes, sing and speak Spanish. She has traveled to CA, NC, FL, Mexico, Caribbean, Hawaii, Jamaica and Haiti. A lesson she has lived by is, "Be thankful; things can always be worse." Lauren has a fun personality that makes our residents laugh; we appreciate her for all that she does here for our residents. Thank you, Lauren!

"This Month In History" OCTOBER

1781: British General Charles Cornwallis formally surrenders, putting an end to the fighting of the American Revolutionary War.

1810: The first Oktoberfest is held in Munich, Bavaria, Germany.

1854: Oscar Wilde is born in Dublin, Ireland. He goes on to write many poems, plays and one novel, many of which are still popular today.

1892: Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes" is published.

1904: The New York subway opens, marking a new way to get around the city.

1931: Gangster Al Capone, one of the most notorious criminals of his time, is sent to prison.

1941: Mount Rushmore, the sculpture of four presidents carved into a mountain, is completed after 14 years of work.

1947: Harry Truman delivers the first televised presidential address. His topic is food conservation.

1962: Johnny Carson takes over for Jack Paar as the host of "The Tonight Show."

1965: The Gateway Arch in Saint Louis, Mo., is completed. The Arch symbolizes the city's nickname of "Gateway to the West."

1973: The Sydney Opera House opens after 15 years in the making. The Opera House is now the most easily recognizable feature of Sydney, Australia.

1998: John Glenn launches into orbit aboard the space shuttle Discovery, nearly 40 years after becoming the first American to orbit Earth.

2007: Al Gore and his associates win the Nobel Peace Prize for their work involving climate change, including the film "An Inconvenient Truth."
