James Stewart

James is our spotlight for September. He was born in Anniston, Alabama. He met his wife in high school. They have one son, six grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. He worked as a Grocery Store Manager. He loves dogs. He also likes the 4th of July. His favorite food is hamburger steak. He enjoyed going to the Mississippi Casinos. He admires his son very much. James has lived by the Bible. One of greatest things that has happened to James is marrying his beautiful wife. Thank you, James, for being a great example!

Having Fun!

September 2013

Tori & Marie

Tori is our spotlight for September. She works as a CNA here on the Memory Care side. She was born in California. She received her associate degree in high school and plans to pursue her nursing degree. She has three dogs. She likes to read and watch movies. She loves Thanksgiving because she loves to spend time with family. Her favorite food is cheeseburgers. She likes the color pink. She has traveled to New York. A lesson she has learned is to be very patient. Thank you, Tori, for all you do!!

"This Month In History" SEPTEMBER

1780: Benedict Arnold commits treason, leading him to become a household name synonymous with betrayal.

1783: The Treaty of Paris is signed, ending the American Revolutionary War.

1814: Francis Scott Key writes what will become the U.S. national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner."

1882: In lower Manhattan, Thomas Edison throws the switch on the country's first commercial power station.

1940: The military draft is approved by President Franklin Roosevelt and is put into place.

1953: John F. Kennedy and Jacqueline Bouvier marry, and soon become one of the most famous political couples in history.

1957: "West Side Story" opens on Broadway and is recognized as one of the edgiest musicals of its time, paving the way for future hits.

1973: Billie Jean King defeats Bobby Riggs in the televised "Battle of the Sexes" tennis match.

1983: Vanessa Williams, who went on to have a successful career as an actress, becomes the first African-American Miss America.

1985: Nearly 75 years after its sinking, the luxury liner Titanic is located southeast of Newfoundland, Canada.

1993: One of the most popular spin-offs ever created, "Frasier" debuts on television.

2004: In an unprecedented move, Oprah Winfrey gives away 276 cars to deserving families in the audience of her show.
