We love our University of Utah students! They help us have so much fun every Saturday morning.

Carrington Court residents enjoyed dropping off school supplies to Jackling Elementary in West Valley City last Friday. The social worker from the school, Glen, will be handing them out to various students at the school as the need arises. We were happy to help the school out, after all education makes us all better human beings!

Louis has the paper ready for all the vocabulary tests the kiddos will have to take!

Lynn and Myrna have notebooks and pencils for the students!

Glen, from Jackling Elementary, came on the Carrington Court bus to accept the donations!

Mike ready to hand out all the composition notebooks!
