

“What can be said in New Year rhymes,
That’s not been said a thousand times?
The new years come, the old years go,
We know we dream, we dream we know.
We rise up laughing with the light,
We lie down weeping with the night.
We hug the world until it stings,
We curse it then and sigh for wings.
We live, we love, we woo, we wed,
We wreath our prides, we sheet our dead.
We laugh, we weep, we hope, we fear,
And that’s the burden of a year.”
– Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Goodbye, 2017!

Happy New Year from everyone here at Carrington Court: Marking the last day of the year, we celebrate the beginning day of the New Year. New Year's is one of the largest and best celebrations of the year with a new beginning, new goals, new aspirations, and enthusiasm. Most of the people across the world will celebrate the New Year with different customs and traditions. It is a holiday to welcome a brand new year with your friends and families. Last year we had a wonderful time with our Carrington Court family.

January 2018

The Monte L. Bean Life Science Museum

We will be touring the museum on Monday, January 22, 2018. We will plan to leave by 1:30 PM. Please RSVP at the front desk letting us know you can volunteer. Let's give the residents an enjoyable experience!

Located at Brigham Young University, this museum was opened to the public in 1978.
