

The Statue of Liberty

The statue of Liberty was a gift of friendship from the people of France commemorating the alliance of France and the United States during the American Revolution. On the Statue it says "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of the teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!" The torch is a symbol of the enlightenment. The Statue of Liberty's torch lights the way to freedom showing us the path to Liberty. Even the Statue's official name represents her most important symbol "Liberty Enlightening the World".

Why We Celebrate the 4th of July

The importance of the 4th day of July, is that it marks the birth of the United States of America. The people wanted to be free, to make their own decisions, to govern themselves and breathe the sweet air of liberty. John Adams, himself a signer of the Declaration, thought that Americans should henceforth celebrate a "great anniversary festival." Surely this is a time for all of us who really cherish that original dream to pledge allegiance to the foundation of government of, by, and for the people . . . people who are determined to live free.
